

ImaginAction

Daring to dream and design anti-oppressive collective futures through art and play

Erasmus+ Training Course, 1st-8th December 2025, Spain

Training Course

A 6-day training course for 22 participants (social/youth workers, facilitators, activists, community organisers...) of 7 partner countries to address topics of personal and social identities and emotional competences, from fantasy to reality of individual and collective dreams, the “imagination gap”, unified play and “co-laboratories” for bottom-up future design.

Through co-construction of collective knowledge, exploration of concepts such as “healthy human cultures”, “imagination activism”, “relational care” and “applied utopia”, participatory non-formal educational methods, learning by doing, community living, artistic and playful tools.

Partners still to be confirmed:

There is still room for a final partner, in case you or your organisation are enthusiastic, please contact mgreen@otraescuela.org